

A Free Presentation for Parents and Community Members

David Levine

Tuesday, January 25, 2011

7:00-8:00 p.m.

Nationally known expert on building pro-social skills is coming to Lisle

David Levine is scheduled for a third time this year to work in Lisle. He will present information to parents and community members at Lisle Jr. High on Tuesday, January 25, 2011 from 7:00-8:00 p.m. Parents and community members are invited to attend David Levine's presentation to gain a better understanding and learn strategies to successfully address anti-social behaviors. David Levine is a nationally known expert on addressing bullying behaviors. His book, "Teaching Empathy" has been used by teachers in the school district as they work with their students in developing pro-social behaviors. David Levine was the opening day speaker in August and worked with staff, students and conducted a parent discussion on bully prevention this past October in Lisle. David will continue to work with staff, students and the community during his visit in January to develop their understanding of empathy and pro-social skills. David will emphasize how we can all be part of the solution!

Parents and Community Members - please mark your calendars for this FREE event on Tuesday, January 25, 2011 from 7:00-8:00 p.m. to come to the Lisle Jr. High School at 5207 Center Ave., Lisle, IL 60532 and learn what David Levine advocates in the development of empathy and pro-social skill development.

Mark your calendars and join us in Lisle

Tuesday, January 25, 2011!