

Lisle Community Unit School District #202 Announces New High School Principal

1/12/10 FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lisle Community Unit District 202 is pleased to announce that Pete Sullivan has been appointed to the position of principal at Lisle Senior High School. Beginning July 1, 2010, Mr. Sullivan will replace retiring Principal Ron Logeman.

“We welcome Mr. Sullivan to District 202 as the new principal of Lisle Senior High,” said Dr. Patricia Wernet, District #202 Superintendent. “He brings with him a wealth of experience from teaching, building level administration and central office administration. His leadership strengths matched the goals and objectives of the district.”

For the past six years, Mr. Sullivan has served as the Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction in the Lockport Township High School District in Lockport, IL. Prior to this position, he has held the positions of dean, assistant principal and principal of Lockport Township High School, Student Intervention Coordinator and teacher at Chicago Public Schools, and Adjunct Professor at the University of Illinois at Chicago.

“I am honored to have the opportunity to be the next principal at Lisle High School,” Sullivan said. “Throughout the interview process, it was evident just how closely everyone works together for the betterment of students within Lisle Community School District 202. I look forward to getting to know as many students, teachers, staff, parents and community members as possible in the coming months. I am very appreciative to the many people who have gone out of their way to offer their help and support. I am proud to be a Lisle Senior High School Lion and plan to contribute to the continued success of Lisle High School for many years to come.”

Mr. Sullivan received his BA from Loyola University of Chicago majoring in Political Science with a minor in English. He then earned a Master of Education degree from the University of Illinois at Chicago. Currently he is working on his PhD in Public Policy Analysis.

Dr. Wernet related that his strengths were clearly evident during the interview process. She noted many positive comments from Mr. Sullivan’s current administration team and teachers supporting his selection including, “He has a wonderful relationship with our students. Kids love him.” “He cares about students and staff. It is important to him to be visible and supportive.” “ He is a strong instructional leader which is evident in his commitment to student learning. “

Mr. Sullivan is a member of several professional organizations including the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, the National Staff Development Council and the International Reading Association as well as being active in the Lockport Rotary Club. He and his wife Chris reside in Lockport with their four children.

For further information please contact:

Dr. Patricia Wernet, Lisle CUSD #202 Superintendent of Schools
(630) 493-8000 pwernet@lisle202.org